Summer 2020 Socially Innovative Global Classroom: Online

Application Guidelines

- As a school selected for the FY2018 Inter-University Exchange Project of Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, Japan, Osaka City University is implementing a Program to Develop Collaborative Social Innovators that uses Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL). As a pilot program, the university is implementing an entirely online-version of the program entitled Socially Innovative Global Classroom: Online (SIGLOC-online) during the Summer of 2020. We are recruiting students to participate in this program, as well as partner schools, with whom we will carry out this collaborative development.

- Purpose of the SIGLOC Program
  - The purpose of this program is to cultivate social innovators. Social innovation refers to solving social problems through new products, services and systems. By collaborating with students from other countries, the program will cultivate the ability to “discover issues” and the ability to “find solutions”, and train people who possess the ability to “implement those solutions”. This program aims to yield people who are self-motivated, creative problem-solvers that find solutions to issues that involve, but are not limited to, the government, NPOs or corporations in the future. Specifically, we focus on “three abilities” that are as follows.
    - Ability to Identify Social Issues
      - When facing social problems, it is necessary to think about the problem within the context of its surroundings (i.e., the environment, social background, and social framework such as laws and customs). As one cannot see his/her own face without a mirror, the context in which a problem is occurring cannot be discovered unless it is viewed from a different angle or perspective. By studying and discussing issues with students from other countries, participants will enhance the ability to discover the context and core of the issues faced as well as find new solutions.

    - Ability to Find Creative Solutions
      - Solving a problem requires creativity. Problems that could be solved without creativity, would have already been resolved. The program cultivates a variety of viewpoints by placing issues in a new context, and giving individuals the ability to find creative solutions, produce new products, services and systems.

    - Ability to Implement a Solution
      - Creation of products, services and systems for a new context can become socially significant when it is accepted by all stakeholders. To achieve this goal, people in various positions, such as the staff in government, NPOs, corporations and local communities, need to transcend barriers for cross-sector collaboration. The program encourages participants to acquire an ability to implement the problem's solution regardless of their positions.
